

WELCOME TO OUR Monthly Newsletter

THE PEAK OF THE SEASON...

I very much feel that my feet haven't touched the ground this month. It has certainly felt like the fastest and busiest month since The Apothecary began. Along with the heat, bursts of busy days and a total of eight workshops, sitting back in the evenings to enjoy a serene sunset has felt even more rewarding and precious this month.

It's also been particularly lovely to welcome back customers from my first year. I've so enjoyed hearing their kind words, positivity and feedback on how The Apothecary has grown and evolved.

A busy month, but a very special one.!

GORGEOUS PAINTINGS OFF TO THEIR NEW HOMES ...

As I've expressed before, I'm always filled with so much emotion when one of my gallery paintings is sold and begins its journey to a new home.

This month brought several particularly hard goodbyes, but also so much happiness in knowing they'll be loved and cherished in their new homes.

So, here's a little celebration of them...

The Creations ...

EXPANDING MY EARRING RANGE...

There was little time to settle into creating anything too big this month, but earring making — with all its little stages and processes — was perfectly manageable amidst the busyness.

A lovely way to keep creating, even when time was limited

Workshops...

A MONTH FULL OF CREATIVITY...

There were so many beautiful workshops this month, with demand being so high that I added additional dates to the schedule. The final week of August saw three workshops in one week!

It truly was the perfect month to embrace our stunning sunsets and beautiful shorelines, and to share a little creativity, calm and inspiration along the way.

Looking Ahead...

A calmer September is now something to look forward to: quieter times, a change in light and the softening of colours. All will inspire fresh workshops, and hopefully allow some time to settle into new paintings.
